

Each Time You Tell Their Story

... a Salute to the Men and Women serving in the US Armed Services

1. Opener

- ~ Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy
- ~ brief opening, mysterious sounds of impending war
Followed by shout chorus from Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy

2. Music of Christopher Lennertz

- ~ Pacific Assault
- ~ European Assault 1942

3. Each Time You Tell Their Story

- ~ song written by Samuel Hazo
- ~ poem composed by his father, by Dr.,
Samuel J. Hazo
- ~ Poem will be read along with music (or pre recorded)

No soldiers choose to die.
It's what they risk by being
who and where they are.

It's what they dare while saving someone else whose life means suddenly as much to them as theirs..... or More.

To honor them,
why speak of duty or the will of governments?

Think first of love
each time you tell their story.
It gives sacrifice a name,
and takes from war its glory.

4. Closer

- ~ To Be Determined
  - ~ celebratory
- introduction; then it will be patriotic in nature, fast and driving in rhythm.

The 2010 Athens High School RED HAWK MARCHING BAND presents:

Each Time You Tell Their Story

... a Salute to the Men and Women serving in the US Armed Services

This exciting show is set in the year surrounding World War II. The Musical Program centers on the stirring composition "Each Time You Tell Their Story," by Samuel Hazo. The song - and our show - includes the recitation of a poem by the composer's father - Dr. Samuel J. Hazo.

No soldiers choose to die.
It's what they risk by being
who and where they are.....

.....Think first of love
each time you tell their story.
It gives sacrifice a name,
and takes from war its glory.

In addition, the overall show concept includes music from the era such as Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, exceptional compositions by Christopher Lennertz (evoking the awesome power and tragedy of troops in battle); and the show closes with an original composition which includes America the Beautiful!
